

Zane Grubaugh, LPA

Mr. Zane Grubaugh is a Licensed Psychological Associate providing assessment services under the supervision and direction of Dr. Jones and Dr. Scott. He joined the JCCTA team in 2017.

Mr. Zane earned a Master of Arts in psychology from Argosy University - Dallas in 2011 and, in 2005, a Bachelor of Science in psychology from the University of North Texas in Denton. He also attained undergraduate education at Northlake College.

Mr. Zane has gained several years' experience in assessing children, adolescents, and young adults with various psychological challenges. He has worked with individuals with a number of diagnoses, including ADHD, ODD, DMDD, Bipolar Disorder, general and social anxiety, and depression. Mr. Zane has also treated adults suffering from chronic pain, head injuries, and traumatic experiences, and those with bariatric needs. Since 2013, he has been an adjunct professor at Northlake College. Following high school, Mr. Zane enlisted in the United States Navy and headed to Great Lakes for basic training. After reaching his ship, he earned the title Aviation Boatswains Mate Aircraft Handler and worked as a flight deck aircraft director aboard the USS Kitty Hawk and USS Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Zane is dedicated to providing the individuals he works with accurate diagnostic information, as well as appropriate goals and recommendations for additional future intervention. He enjoys the company of four legged creatures and finds his most peaceful days to be staring out at the horizon across open water.
